Group's mass public march to voice dissent at government's swingeing cuts to public services

By James Lowe

HUNDREDS of protesters took to the streets on Saturday to call for a reversal of the swingeing cuts to the public sector.

In the first such major local protest since the half-a-million-strong national anti-cuts demonstration on March 26, the Haringey Alliance For Public Services drummed up support from local pressure groups and unions as residents and workers staged a march to oppose the £41million cuts made by Haringey Council.

The alliance reported an "excellent, lively and powerful" demonstration supported by about 250 people.

As well as calling for the cuts to be reversed, the alliance is asking for all public services to be properly funded, as well as flagging up the effect of NHS reforms as the private sector begins potentially to play a greater role in the health service.

Setting off from Haringey Civic Centre, in High Road, Wood Green, before gathering for a rally at Tottenham Town Hall, marchers also hoped to gather support along the route for tomorrow's largest strike for years. Simon Hester, chairman of Haringey Trades Union Council, said: "The government's assault on public services must be contrasted with the massive public subsidies given by the government to the irresponsible banking sector, and the blind eye being turned to more than £100billion of corporate tax avoidance. We condemn the cuts programme as unfair, unacceptable and unnecessary, and call for the cuts to be reversed and all public services to be properly funded. In addition, we welcome mass public sector strikes tomorrow as a key step forward in the growing fightback against this government's policies."

Tomorrow's walk-out is set to see 750,000 members of four public sector unions take industrial action throughout London and the UK to oppose cuts to pension agreements and to oppose cuts to public services generally.

Spurs pause in Olympic Stadium legal challenge

By Dominique Stafford

TOTTENHAM HOTSPUR are considering whether to continue their fight over the future of the Olympic Stadium after failing in their bid to get a judicial review into the decision to award the ground to West Ham United.

The club were told last Thursday that there were no grounds for a review of the Olympic Park Legacy Company's verdict, announced earlier this year, that West Ham should be the future occupants of the venue in Stratford – which Spurs had also wanted to turn into their new home.

A statement on the official Tottenham Hotspur website said: "The club now has the option of renewing its application at a hearing at the High Court, and we shall give consideration to this in the next few days.

"The club continues to hold discussions with both local and national government bodies in order to seek to determine a feasible stadium solution."

Tottenham have already secured planning permission to build a new ground next to their current White Hart Lane home, but they turned their attention to the Olympic Stadium after deciding that those plans were not economically viable.

A spokesman for the OPLC said: "We are pleased with the ruling and continue to make good progress in our negotiations with the preferred bidder in order to be in a position to agree the final terms for the stadium's lease."

Stadium battle: Spurs want to move out of Tottenham and into the Olympic venue in Stratford

In brief

More rooms in Broadwater

A FEW lucky families in overcrowded council accommodation in the Broadwater Farm Estate will soon get space to stretch out. Drying areas are being converted to provide two extra bedrooms for 12 properties. The work, at a cost to the council of £189,000, will double the number of bedrooms available in each of the flats and will include new double-glazed windows and doors, central heating. With the project split into two phases it is due to be completed in autumn. Councillor John Bevan, cabinet member for housing, said: "This work offers real value for money and provides much-needed extra space for families that are living in severely overcrowded conditions. It's an innovative way of tackling the problem."

Drain problem

RESIDENTS have the chance to bring their drainage problems to the surface as Haringey Council gets set to carry out a borough-wide survey. This follows a report by the Greater London Authority. The council will now get to work with a series of its own surveys in which residents will be asked questions about drainage problems they are experiencing. # Team tackle Britain's highest peak for charity fundraiser

By Jack Ellinas

SIX charity workers have successfully fulfilled their fundraising pledge to climb Ben Nevis, cycle 74 miles and walk the same distance again – all in just seven days.

Dave Morgan, 50, Mark Anderson, 41, Paul Hunter, 46, Craig Goldsworthy, 37, and Tom O'Connell, 31, and Jason Ikavnieks, 36, undertook the arduous challenge in order to raise money for Wood Green, The Animals Charity where they all work.

The adventure began with the intrepid group reaching the summit of the mountain, the highest in the British Isles, after a 13-hour climb.

The next four days saw the men trek from Fort William to Inverness before cycling back along the same 74-mile route on the sixth and seventh days.

Tom said: "The team and I feel extremely proud of our achievement. We had to sustain a high level of exertion over the three elements of the challenge which took seven days.

"Despite some significant physical ailments and extreme fatigue, we completed the challenge on schedule. We all suffered but crossing the finish line and knowing that our efforts are raising vital funds for such a worthwhile cause gave us all a huge boost."

The team aimed to raise £12,000 for surgical equipment and a biochemistry machine which is desperately needed by the charity. So far they have raised almost £10,000.

On top: The team undertook an arduous three-part challenge

Vanessa Cunningham, head of veterinary services at the new £3.6million surgery, said: "The biochemistry machine allows us to run basic blood samples in-house rather than have to send them off to an external laboratory, which can take between 24 and 48 hours. The blood tests check that vital organ systems, such as the liver and kidneys, are working effectively or if conditions such as diabetes are present."

You can still contribute to the group's efforts by sponsoring them at www.justgiving.com/tomtomocconnell. To find out more about Wood Green, The Animals Charity visit www.woodgreen.org.uk

Euromillions winner waits two weeks to collect £1m

A EUROMILLIONS ticket worth £1million that was bought in Haringey has just been claimed.

Lottery bosses had been on the hunt for the mystery winner since the draw on June 7, when the local winner was one of 15 selected in the Millionaire Raffle.

A National Lottery spokesman said: "We're delighted that the winner of this amazing prize has now come forward and we hope that they will enjoy their win. It would have been awful if the ticket-holder had missed out on this substantial and life-enhancing amount of money."

Work set to start on Lordship Rec's £8m restoration

By Jack Ellinas

LORDSHIP Recreation Ground is set to get a makeover worth almost £8million.

The park off Lordship Lane, Tottenham, will gain new facilities for visitors, including a mountain bike competition course, environment centre, information centre and shop, as well as restoration to the theatre.

The work and running costs will come to almost £8m, with most of the money provided by the Heritage Lottery Fund and Haringey Council along with contributions from the Mayor Of London's Help A London Park Scheme and the Environment Agency.

The work is to be carried out by Vinci Construction UK. Sean O'Driscoll, regional director for the company's UK building division, said: "The redevelopment of Lordship Recreation Ground will result in the restoration of a much-loved park to its former glory, as well as the creation of many new and exciting facilities. We will maintain access where possible throughout the project and look forward to delivering a resource that fits the needs of Haringey."

Big plans: The groups backing the makeover works

A number of temporary structures will be put in place to facilitate the works including a site compound, a spine road through the site for vehicle access and a temporary bridge over the river. The original Lordship Lane entrance gates will also be removed and put into storage.

The works are expected to be completed by next July.

ASSISTANT ATTENDANCE OFFICER

20 hours per week – 39 weeks per year, term-time
Scale 2 Actual Salary from £7,829-£8,168pa

Required from September, to work under the direction of the Attendance Officer to assist in the maintenance of all systems for monitoring pupil attendance. This role is job share and we require someone from 12.15pm to 4.15pm Monday to Friday.

The successful candidate will be given full training but must possess computer skills and have the ability to communicate effectively with staff, parents and students.

LUNCHTIME SUPERVISORY ASSISTANTS

12.50pm-2.05pm daily during term time – £9.26 per hour

Do you have an hour to spare at lunchtime? Are you good at dealing with young people? Then perhaps you would like to join our team supervising pupils aged 11-18 both in the Dining Hall and school grounds working alongside teaching staff on duty.

LEARNING SUPPORT ASSISTANT

Specific Task Contract

32.5 hours per week – 39 weeks per year, term-time

Scale 3 Actual Salary from £13,496-£14,343pa

A Specialist Support Assistant is required to work on a one-to-one basis with a Year 9 student who has Down Syndrome, assisting with his self care and supporting in his lessons.

The successful candidate will be patient, flexible and aware of the needs of learners who have Additional Educational Needs including challenging behaviour and speech, language and communication difficulties.

As an inclusive practitioner, you will be familiar with support strategies that are appropriate for the developmental level of learners who work below Level 1 of the National Curriculum.

Experience with Down Syndrome would be preferable, as would experience of augmentative communication systems such as Makaton and physical intervention techniques such as APPROACH. However, training will be provided for the right candidate.

You will need to attend regular liaison meetings with the family, SENCO and other professionals as appropriate.

HARRY ADMITS HE HAS TO SELL

By Dominique Stafford

TOTTENHAM HOTSPUR manager Harry Redknapp admits he will have to offload some players before he can strengthen his squad over the summer.

Spurs have one of the biggest squads in the Premier League, and although Redknapp is looking to bring in a number of new faces to bolster their push for a top-four finish, he has revealed that the board want him to sell some of the fringe players to raise funds.

"There is nothing happening in the transfer market," the manager said. "I need to sell four or five players to bring in funds.

"The chairman has made it clear we need to move a few players before we can start doing any business.

"I keep seeing us linked with this player and that, but unless we reduce our squad numbers we will stay quiet in the market."

Last week saw midfielder Jamie O'Hara move to Wolverhampton Wanderers in a £5million deal, while Tottenham have released injury-plagued defender Jonathan Woodgate after he reached the end of his contract.

Forward Giovanni dos Santos, who was on target for Mexico in their 4-2 win over the United States in the Gold Cup final over the weekend, is also set to quit the club – with Sevilla and Real Zaragoza leading the race for his signature.

The 22-year-old moved to Spurs from Barcelona for £5.3m three years ago, but has failed to settle at the club and impressed while on loan at Racing Santander at the end of last season.

"I still don't know where I am going," he said, "but thank God things are going well now and I have some offers. I will have to wait and see which is the best one."

Midfielder Wilson Palacios is another who is believed to be surplus to requirements – with French giants Paris St Germain having joined Napoli in expressing an interest in signing the Honduras international.

Striker Robbie Keane, wide man David Bentley and midfielder Niko Kranjcar are also expected to leave White Hart Lane over the summer.

Reshaping his squad: Harry Redknapp must sell before he can buy

Disappointment for the Skolars as fine run ends

THE London Skolars' recent good run of form came to an abrupt end on Sunday when they suffered a heavy 40-22 defeat away to Doncaster in rugby league's Co-Operative Championship One.

The Skolars had won two and picked up a losing bonus point from the other one of their previous three matches, but they ended up empty handed on this occasion as they fell away badly in the final 30 minutes after only trailing by two points early in the second half.

James Anthony, debutant Mourad Kriouache, David Williams and Ben Bolger scored tries for the visitors, with Dylan Skee kicking three goals.

Kriouache arrived at the club from leading French outfit Carcassonne last week as a replacement for Jy-Mel Coleman, who has moved to Keighley Cougars for the rest of the season.

"Mourad is exactly the type of player we have been looking for," said director of rugby Mark Croston. "He has a bright future ahead of him.

"We were sad to see Jy-Mel leave as he's another young player with a bright future. We wish him well and understand the lure of a famous club such as Keighley."

Kriouache, a French junior international, added: "The Skolars are showing how strong they are, and have put together a team with huge potential."

The London Skolars host South West Scorpions, who lie directly above them in the table, on Sunday (2pm).
